WUL Fan Code of Conduct Policy

The Western Ultimate League (“WUL”) is committed to creating safe, inclusive, free of discrimination, and enjoyable game-day experiences for all fans visiting venues, stadiums and facilities.

- Fans are encouraged to stand, cheer, sing, and otherwise support their team while remaining respectful and courteous to all players, coaches, fans, observers, and team and venue staff.
- Fans are strictly prohibited from using threatening, abusive, or discriminatory words, signs, symbols, or actions based on race, ethnicity, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, cultural identity, nationality, citizenship status, age, appearance, disability, and/or religion.
- Fans will refrain from displays of signs, symbols, words, or images for purposes of commercial use, electioneering, and/or campaigning or advocating for or against any political party, candidate, or legislation.
- Fans are expected to abide by local, state, and federal laws.
- Fans are to comply with posted venue policies and emergency response procedures.

Any fan who violates any of these provisions may be subject to penalties, including, but not limited to, ejection without refund, loss of ticket privileges for future games, and revocation of season tickets.

Any fan who conducts themselves in an extremely disruptive or dangerous manner or commits multiple violations during a 12-month period, may be banned from attending future WUL games ranging from the remainder of the season up to a lifetime ban. The WUL, in its sole and absolute discretion, may increase or decrease any prescribed penalties.

The following conduct is prohibited in all venues and all parking lots, facilities and areas controlled by the any WUL team or WUL:

- Fighting
- Fan violence
- Assault/battery on staff, vendors, or other patrons
- Using language that is threatening, abusive, or discriminatory in accordance with this Code of Conduct
- Throwing objects of any kind, towards the field, players, and/or observers
- Causing significant damage to venue property
- Provoking and/or inciting threatening, abusive, or discriminatory behavior
- Possession or use of an unauthorized pyrotechnic device, smoke, or firework, or attempting to use one inside the venue without prior approval
